Re: In re: Marin; Case No. 99-41091

Dear Bruce:

Enclosed is the Trustee's Final Report of the Marin case. I thought an explanation might be helpful. We hired special counsel in this case to pursue litigation claims related to certain personal injuries of Ms. Marin. We also hired general counsel. As you can see from the reports we received $20,000 on a settlement of one of the claims and thought we would have a good return to creditors when the second settlement came in. What we did not know was that the hospital had a lien on an settlement proceeds. After we received the $20,000 we carefully reviewed the lien and concluded there was nothing that could be done to avoid it. The bulk of the settlement funds were then abandoned. The smaller amount we received was from the second suit which did not relate to the hospital lien but went to pay the legal fees and expenses of special counsel per court order. The remainder is what is left at this time.

Sincerely,
